

Australia Nova Romana

Authenticity rules

Australia Nova Romana (ANR) is the Nova Roma community in Australia and New Zealand.

We are a social group of like-minded individuals and a collection of people who share a common interest in ancient Rome and the Roman Republic.

ANR defines a period of focus between 753 BCE to 330 CE but with a core governance structure based on the late ancient Roman Republic, identified as the period 133 BCE -31 BCE.

ANR seeks to educate members on Nova Roma, Mos Maiorum and Romanitas. We also seek to explore the finer detail of other facets of Roman life, such as the Roman Republican Senate, experienced through role-play. ANR also runs a public speaking program and remedial Latin language program.

We seek to operate and behave as Romans and contribute to our Roman society. When in public we aim to represent ancient Rome in a true and historical fashion.
