

Salvete iterum,

Sadly, I must amend section 5 of my provincial report, as an unexpected event has obliged Sibylla Ambrosia Fulvia to withdraw her candidacy for governor.

M. Cassius Julianus has agreed to step in as candidate for governor. He is eminently qualified, having held the position in the past and organizing numerous Roman events over the years in this, other offices, and as a private citizen. I hope that the Senate will take his experience and devotion to things Roman under consideration and confirm Cassius as Nova Britannia's next governor.

Valete,

A. Iulius Paternulus
LEGATUS PRO PRAETORE
NOVA BRITANNIA
